

Warrensburg Station Agents

1907 - 1963

- 1907-c.1908 Stephen B. Griffing (1830-?)
1881 starts as station agent in March at Thurman
1892 station & express agent, Thurman
1907 transferred to new freight office in Warrensburg in April
- 1908-1940 George N. Lane (1861-1941)
1905 working at shirt store in Warrensburg
1908 starts as Freight Agent in Warrensburg
1940 still listed in April census as station agent
- c.1908-1952 Walter G. Lane (1888-1952)
1908 son of George, assistant agent
1940 station clerk with father George
1952 still working as agent at his death
- 1940-1943 Albert C. Anderson (1879-?)
1930 telegrapher in Crown Point
1940 in census as station agent in Warrensburg probably transferred to replace George 1943 last listing found as freight agent
- 1920-1953 Lester James Love (1889-c.1962)
1914 telegrapher in Ft. Ann
1918 starts as Thurman station agent on May 9th
1920 transferred to Railway Express in Warrensburg in July replacing J.W. Parks
1920-1953 Railway Express agent in Warrensburg

The original freight office was an old passenger car parked at the end of the tracks. This was replaced in 1929 with a new freight house. This closed in 1963 and the building later removed.

